Show Off Your Hospitality Style With Photos That Say 'Welcome'

The hospitality industry thrives on a special kind of photography – images that capture not only appearance, but the aura of excitement, elegance and comfort that bring guests to an unforgettable hotel, an enticing restaurant or a nightspot that lights up the night.

Russ Hanson's award-winning photography captures the spirit of hospitality for publications, presentations and the Web. We travel throughout the Midwest to help you make diners' mouths water and help sleepyheads find just the right spot to dream. We have worked with many of the most demanding corporate groups, including Ramada Plaza, Radisson, Holiday Inn and Best Western, as well as independent and franchised F&B operations.

- Architectural exteriors
- Images of facilities – from your front door through your guest rooms.
- Restaurants and lounges
- Food and beverage tabletops
- Action photos that capture first-class service
